

Dada Says

If you want to achieve success, you must fix a goal-and every day take at least one step in the right direction.

THE FUTURE WORKFORCE

We live in a world today where change is the only thing which is constant. In these tricky times organisations are looking for people who are agile and can transform themselves according to the requirements of organization. For career growth and success employees should be proactive in taking responsibility to acquire skills which will keep them in demand. Given are few skills which employers will be looking for in the prospective employees. This data is based on research done by World Economic Forum, Future of Jobs., 2015. Top ten skills required in 2020 are: Complex Problem Solving, Critical Thinking, Creativity, People Management ,Coordinating with others, Emotional intelligence, Judgement and Decision making, service orientation, Negotiation and Cognitive Flexibility

Creativity is going to be much sought after skill due continuous demand for new products, new technology and fresh ideas.

A report on Future of systems and society shows that people expect artificial intelligence machines to be part of Board of Directors of a company by 2026.

Changes do not wait for anyone, so...

SVIMS NEWROOM

As a part of our endeavour to develop a spirit of seva or service in our students, various activities are carried out at SVIMS at regular intervals.

After the successful Blood donation camp in January, MBA students actively volunteered for Bal Mela organised by Mission for under privileged and special children.

SVIMS also co sponsored a Women's Day Event organised by Money life and Magarpatta city, ...

LOL.....Little Sam (On phone): My Son is having fever and won't be able to come to school today.

Teacher: Who is this?

Sam: This is my father speaking.