

Dada Says...

I pray not for Heaven, not for any Devaloka after death.

*I pray not for being "merged" in him
I Pray that every day I may live in the new that hath no ending, and that living thus, I may love God and serve God and take God in my silence and my work.*

SVIMS NEWROOM

09th July 2019: Visit to Poona Blind School

As a tribute to our Beloved Dada J.P. Vaswani on his Sacred Mahayagya Team SVIMS visited Poona Blind School. Poona Blind School, Koregaon Park caters to 130 boys who are blind or are suffering from partial blindness. It's a residential school which serves the boys free of cost.

Beloved Dada believed that Service of the poor, the underprivileged is a way to God. Keeping this in mind, SVIMS made a humble contribution to funding a meal for the visually challenged boys. Serving them was indeed therapeutic for the mind and soul.

Suleman: It is every Year!

People Management

A dilemma was posed to all prospective applicants to the post of a HR Executive in a reputed company:

You are driving along in your car on a wild, stormy night, it's raining heavily, when suddenly you pass by a bus stop, and you see three people waiting for a bus:

- An old lady who looks as if she is about to die
- An old friend who once saved your life
- The perfect partner you have been dreaming about

Which one would you choose to offer a ride to, knowing very well that there could only be one passenger in your car?

- You could pick up the old lady, because she is going to die, and thus you should save her first.
- Or you could take the old friend because he once saved your life, and this would be the perfect chance to pay him back
- However, you may never be able to find your perfect mate again

The candidate who was hired had no trouble coming up with his answer.

Guess what was his answer? He simply answered: "I would give the car keys to my old friend and let him take the lady to the hospital. I would stay behind and wait for the bus with the partner of my dreams."
